Dear Parties:

For clarification of the email below, if needed. The scheduled proceeding is an Oral Argument. Oral arguments do not typically have witnesses, but usually have legal presentations by the representative attorney. You do not need to have a witness as it is expected to be an argument. The email and survey used the standard language for consistency. Therefore, ignore any reference to a witness if this does not apply to you or your case.

I hope this helps. If this email is not clear, please do not hesitate to reach out to Commission legal staff for further clarification, but please copy all parties of record to the email or inquiry. I (JoAnne.Hill@psc.sc.gov) am the legal staff contact on this docket.

With kind regards,
